Monday, November 13: We’ll have a hot breakfast before we depart our hotel and begin our journey home. Lunch today will be at Chick-fil-A, which just happens to be at the original location. It all started in 1946, when Truett Cathy opened his first restaurant, Dwarf Grill, in Hapeville, Georgia. Credited with inventing Chick-fil-A’s boneless breast of chicken sandwich, Mr. Cathy founded Chick-fil-A, Inc. in the early 1960s and pioneered the establishment of restaurants in shopping malls with the opening of the first Chick-fil-A Restaurant at a mall in suburban Atlanta in 1967. Since then, Chick-fil-A has steadily grown to become the largest quick-service chicken restaurant chain in the United States. Want to learn more about this great company? Because guess what’s next? It’s the Chick-fil-A® Home Office Backstage Tour. We promise you’ll enjoy this informative and very interesting tour. After our tour we’ll get back on the road and head to the same hotel as our first night of the tour in Tupelo, MS. We will get in early enough to enjoy dinner at a nearby restaurant (on your own) before calling it a night. Overnight: Tupelo, MS (B)

Tuesday, November 14: After a hot breakfast, we depart our hotel and start on our day of travel home. We will all be chattering about our favorite part of this wonderful itinerary! Could it be our visit to Kennedy Space Center, or the beautiful scenery with the brilliant blue colors in St. Maarten? Or just maybe the entire wonderful 7-night cruise? Do we really need to choose? It was all part of our great tour with . . . (B)
